End of life care 'train the trainer' programme

With more focus expected on home-based end of life care services in the future, a well-trained workforce is essential.

This resource guide and training programme has been designed to assist domiciliary care staff to improve their knowledge and skills in end of life care and provide high quality services.

- UKHCA members: £45.00 each
- Non-members: £90.00 each

Food hygiene and nutrition 'train the trainer' programme

The Food Hygiene and Nutrition Train the Trainer pack has been developed specifically to enable domiciliary care staff to be trained to prepare nutritious food for individuals safely, and to understand how to recognise and manage malnutrition or dehydration. The training also covers the knowledge required to ensure safe food handling, preparation and storage, following food hygiene regulations and techniques.

The resource is two complete training programs - food hygiene and nutrition. Together this training will support careworkers to provide food and drink that meets service users' needs safely.

- UKHCA members: £45.00 each
- Non-members: £90.00 each

All prices include UK postage, packing and VAT (where applicable)
